

Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely a historical document or manuscript. The text is densely packed and covers most of the page. It appears to be a record or a list of items, possibly related to a military or administrative context, given the use of terms like "полковник" (colonel) and "полк" (regiment). The script is highly stylized and difficult to read without specialized knowledge of the language and dialect.

Handwritten text at the bottom right of the page, possibly a signature or a date. The text is written in the same cursive script as the main body of the document. It is somewhat faded and difficult to decipher, but it appears to be a personal or official mark.
