

Reminder for authors

The articles should be prepared in accordance with the requirements for the structure of scientific papers, including the purpose and the object of the study, the discussion and evaluation of the researched issue's historiography, the sources for the study and the conclusions. A short annotation in the language of the article and keywords should be given before the main text with an English translation.

A list of sources and literature is given at the end of the article in accordance with the citation examples given below. The entries should be arranged alphabetically; if the article is in Latin script, the citations in Latin script should precede those in Cyrillic script; if the article is in Cyrillic script, visa versa. Bibliographic citations in the text should be given in brackets, the number of a citation should be followed by a comma and cited page numbers.

Requirements for formatting bibliographic citations

Formatting monograph citations: Author (Surname, Name). Title: subtitle [Other statements of responsibility: compilers, editors, translators etc.]. Edition (if given in the publication). Place of publishing: Publisher, year of publishing. Total number of pages (total number of volumes – if multi-volume set).
